

If the Health Administration Center is closed, you can call the number below for help.

Yoriso Hotline 0120-279-338

24/7 service is available to help with any questions.

One-Stop Center for Victims of Sexual Violence #8891

If you have experienced sexual violence or a crime, you can call about it here. This is a comprehensive support center for treatment, psychological support, and legal assistance related to sexual violence and sexual crimes.

Police Consultation Service #9110

If you have concerns about violence or abuse, you can call about it here. The police headquarters will provide you with the necessary advice, guidance, warnings, and enforcement actions.

Emergency and Relief Center Gifu #7119

If you're unsure whether to call an ambulance or go to the hospital, you can call and speak with medical professionals. They will provide you with emergency advice and hospital information.